Day 2 : Arusha - Tarangire

after an early breakfast this morning you'll meet your guide. You will set off for Tarangire National Park, often a favorite park among guides due to its size and remoteness. The park is known for the large numbers of elephant that congregate here. There are substantial populations of wildebeest, zebra, impala, giraffe, eland and buffalo. The primary landscape is dry, open woodland scattered with hundreds of Africa's prehistoric 'Trees of Life', the baobab tree. You'll explore the park in your private vehicle, stopping for a picnic lunch during your game drive, and eventually head to your camp for the evening. Dining at Treetops sustains the momentum of undeniably memorable moments. Whether enjoying a lantern-lit dinner in a traditional Boma echoing to the sounds of Maasai chants, or eating poolside by candlelight whilst a wealth of wildlife comes to drink at the Lodge water hole, Treetops creates memories by the minute and in so many differing ways. overnight at Tarangire tree top lodge
